son, proposed to purchase a quantity of fifty thousand pounds sterling. No one will be surprised at the revelation, as it is "not anything but the known interests." It has never done any worse thing than to assist the rebellion, and it is not the least of its merits that it has never meant one. Its excessive "loyalty" now is just as sincere, as it was then, and not more pronounced because of this disclosure by many newspapers who "voluntarily supplied" the information. The Chicago Herald of 1861. The N. Y. Tribune and its Chicago namesake were persistent in demanding peace. The Herald's "loyalty" at that time was for "safe for two hundred newspapers had no 'loyalty' upon which bids might be invited. The hoary old Chicago Herald of 1861. THE FIRST BLOOM.—Mr. J. H. White, whose farm, three miles out on the Pigeon Roost road, placed a fine stalk of cotton upon our table yesterday. It bears several promising blooms, and seems to be an earnest of a fine and healthy crop of the great staple. This is several weeks earlier in the season than the bloom appeared last year, and, should the weather continue warm and dry, as it is at present, it will be but a few days until the cotton-fields will present a beautiful and been about the country much, says that the available ground for miles around the city has been planted with cotton, and that the most of which fine crops will be gathered, as there is plenty of help at moderate prices. There is one thing, however, that will tend to retard the bringing of early crops into market, and that is the deficiency in the facilities for ginning, as most of the gin-houses have been injured or entirely destroyed during the past three or four years. In times past, almost every planter could boast of his gin-house and cotton-press; now there is scarcely one in ten who can do so; and

HEAVY FOREIGN OF A VOUCHER.—Some time since, a young man representing himself as the agent of a well-known business-house of this city, called upon John B. Howard & Co., of Nashville, and sold them $22,000 worth of Quartermaster's vouchers, receiving $20,000 for the same. In the lot was one for $17,500, which, with some others, was sent by the purchasers to a correspondent at Louisville, where they were deposited as collateral. The $17,500 voucher was afterward forwarded to the First Na-having been regarded, thus far, as perfectly correct. It was soon taken to a Quartermaster's office for collection, and it was then discovered to be fraudulent, having been raised from one of $152.50.

The fraudulent voucher was indorsed, with a statement of its character in red ink across the face, officially attested, and returned to the First National Bank of Nashville, which forwarded it to the Bank in Louisville, which in turn forwarded it to John B. Howard & Co., in Nashville, with whom it was the party from whom they purchased it, who has done with it, we know not what. However

THE LATE ACCIDENT ON THE OHIO AND MISSISSIPPI RAILROAD—The WASHINGTON (Ind.) Telegraph, published on the line of the Ohio and Mississippi railroad, is the following in regard to the late accident at Carlyle, and the general management of the road:

The train of soldiers, which passed through here last week, met with a terrible accident near Carlyle, Illinois. It happened through the gross carelessness of the railroad employes. Several were killed and a large number wounded and horses were killed and the cars literally demolished. A terrible fatality seems to attend all of the operations on the Ohio and Mississippi railroad. A trip to Cincinnati or St. Louis is attended with much danger as the storming of a rebel battery, or sailing over a line of submarine torpedoes. Our citizens all have an instinctive dread of traveling on the road, and the most of them go around by Terre Haute and Indianapolis rather than ride on the Ohio and Mississippi railroad. It is a disgrace to appear to be a total disregard for the lives, convenience or comfort of travelers on this road.

der, lighting and hail, which has visited this section of country for some time broke forth suddenly over the island known as Saddy Hen, above this city, on last Sunday afternoon, at five o'clock, and during the prevalence of the thunder storm which passed over this city. Our informant, William Readdy Esq., who was on the island at the time along with his field hands, narrowly escaped being buried in the debris of a stable in which they took refuge. Indeed, so severe was the wind that it carried completely over to the mainland thirteen fine apple trees, a part of the stable, a bale of hay and a horse belonging to Mr. Readdy, and completely wrung from the roots every vestige ing everything that Mr. Readdy possessed, excepting six fine mules, which narrowly escaped the falling timber. In such a hurricane had passed over this city there is no telling what damage would have been done to life and property.—(Memphis Argus, 28th.

ARREST OF THE POSTMASTER AT SPRINGFIELD, ILLINOIS.—Mr. Armstrong, Postmaster at Springfield, Illinois, was arrested in that city a few days since, and placed under bonds in the sum of $10,000, for opening letters and taking money therefrom. The accused was

Our best citizens appear sure that, if they opened letters, it was a motive of human curiosity, rather than from a malicious intent. The letters opened were directed to females, and that which led to Mr. Armstrong's detection had $15 in it. It is said that the clerks in the office were for some time suspected, and one who had been watched finally told the officer to direct a letter to a certain lady in this city, and that the Postmaster would open it, which, it appears, turned out to be the case.

There is no river man who is not weekly proclaimed in at least a dozen newspapers, "courteous," "prompt," "energetic," "reliable," "gentlemanly," "affable," &c. CITY NEWS.

Agent of the Democrat in Nashville, Tenn.

Wm. C. COLLIER, No. 23 1/2 Cherry street, Nashville, is Special Agent for the Daily and Weekly Democrat in Nashville, Tenn.

For the Race Course. Trains will leave the depot at 9 o'clock this morning for the Race Course, to give all an opportunity to attend the great prize drill.

Fourth of July. To-morrow is the 4th of July, and we believe will be generally celebrated by everybody—white and black. The occasion at the fair grounds promises to be a huge affair. Speeches will be made, orators and music, and in fact everything done to celebrate the day in an appropriate manner. It will not doubt be a day in military circles, and the "bummers" will no doubt take advantage of it.

The Fenian Brotherhood will celebrate the day at the Woodland Garden, in which they give their first grand picnic, and that will be a splendid affair.

The darkeys, not to be eclipsed, intend celebrating the day hugely, but how, when and where we are unable to state, but we believe Fred. Douglas has promised to serve them with a speech, and tell them what he thinks of the war and the negroes ought to think.

As a matter of course, there will be enough whisky drunk to make folks black each other's eyes and hang each other's noses, but we hope there will not be a single disturbance and that the glorious Fourth of July will be celebrated in a quiet, pleasant, and untroubled way—one that will long be remembered by everybody.

Gen. Sherman to Arrive To-Day. Yesterday morning, at 9 o'clock, the committee appointed by the General Council on Saturday night, met at the Mayor's office, to appoint a committee of reception to wait upon General Sherman and extend to him the hospitality of the city.

The committee (seventeen in number), left yesterday morning on the General Lytle, for Cincinnati, expecting to meet General Sherman at Aurora.

A dispatch was received in this city stating that the United States would leave Cincinnati, at 4 o'clock, last evening, having on board Gen. Sherman and a number of prominent citizens. Gen. Sherman will be received at the wharf this morning by a delegation of citizens, his honor Mayor Tompkins and the members of the General Council, and from thence he will be conducted to the Louisville Hotel.

At the courthouse, at 10 o'clock, the address will be delivered by the Hon. James Guthrie. The reception will be such a one as the hero of the war deserves.

SWINDLED OUT OF A DIAMOND PIN, WATCH AND CHAIN.—Every man who travels on steamers on the Ohio, Mississippi, White and Arkansas rivers knows that these vessels are almost universally infested by gamblers, regular blacklegs, who have no other business than to go from point to point with every trip of the vessels and play their nefarious business.

On Saturday morning a young man, by the name of Geo. Hanning, made complaint at the office of the chief of police, that on the trip from Cincinnati to this place on the mail line he had, by one of these sharpers, been swindled out of some money, a fine diamond pin and a gold watch and chain. The officers were unable to do anything in the matter. Some speculation should be done to stop this species of swindling on steamboats. We are glad to say that none of the officers of the boats know anything about it, for when they say that they once put a stop to it.

PRIZE DRILL.—The grand prize drill of the division of Gen. Corse will come off at the Woodland Race Course to-day. The prize to be drilled for is a handsome banner, valued at over $100. What can be more beautiful than to see our brave boys performing the different evolutions of the drill? Why, nothing, and we hope to see a large crowd of both soldiers and citizens present to-day. The following is the committee to superintend the drill: Major General Baird, Major General Williams, and Brigadier General Hickenlooper.

The drill will commence at 10 o'clock this morning, and cars will leave the depot at 9 o'clock for the accommodation of those who wish to attend.

HONORABLY DISCHARGED.—In the Democrat of Thursday we mentioned that G. W. and R. C. Robinson had been arrested on a dispatch, from Nashville, accusing them with robbery. The accusation in the dispatch was obtained money under false pretenses. A full investigation of the case showed that there was not the least foundation for the charge, and they were honorably discharged by Judge Johnston yesterday morning. We are informed that the Robinsons are high-toned gentlemen, and that they are honest and straightforward in all their dealings.

SICK AND WOUNDED.—A train arrived from Nashville night before last with one hundred and seventy-five sick Federal soldiers on board. Seventy-five of them belonged to Northern States, and were transferred to Northern States, and were transferred to Jefferson Hospital.

Good.—A well-known broken-down politician was abusing some negro soldier yesterday, when one of the darkeys, turning upon him, said, "Don't do that, Massa, kase you might want us to vote for you some day." The old fellow stopped.

A gentleman from Connecticut took possession of the National Hotel parlor yesterday without the consent of the proprietors. The last we heard of him he was settling the matter with the provost marshal.

The attention of the pump doctor is called to the pump on the corner of Fifth and Broadway, where the water, coming from the table and small of the water, that it has "struck like" or something else.

The negroes in the contraband camps at Clarksville, Bowlinggreen and other places in Kentucky all Tennessee, are dying of fast. Still are the benefits of freedom to the poor negro.

The body of a drowned man was found floating in the river. Saturday, six miles below the city. The body was asked, and it is supposed he was drowned while in swimming.

Quite a number of ladies and gentlemen are at present enjoying themselves at Mammoth Cave. It is a cool, quiet, pleasant summer place of resort.

See in another column a call for a meeting of the Fenian Brotherhood.

Nine thousand rebels have taken the oath at Nashville since January 1st.

The Fourth of July is to be celebrated at Camp Nelson by the negroes.

Gen. Butler's Dutch Gap Canal, on James river, is being used by steamboats.

The city was unusually quiet yesterday. But very few arrests of soldiers were made.

Captain Swope, the efficient Provost Marshal, has been very ill for several days.

There is to be a fast and slow race in Lexington to-morrow. There'll be fun for you.

A horse ran away down Third street yesterday with a buggy attached to him. No one hurt.

Yesterday Officer McGuire arrested a negro by the name of Sam. Hill, charged with stealing $7.

Father McCool, a Catholic priest, was run over by the cars and killed at Sedansville, Ohio, a few days ago.

The Fourth Michigan Cavalry will be mustered out of service in a few days. They are now encamped at Edgefield.

Nearly all the rebel prisoners who have been in the North for some time past have returned to their homes in the South.

CAUTION.—Gabriel T. May is not a carrier of the Democrat, and we caution our patrons against paying him money on our account.

There has been a general rain throughout Southern Kentucky and a portion of Tennessee. Good for the crops, which are looking fine.

There will be a social private basket picnic at Buckner's station, on the Lexington railroad, on the 7th inst. Those invited are expected to attend.

COMING HOME.—The Fourth, Seventh, Fifth Ohio, Fourth Indiana, and First Illinois, have been mustered out of service and will arrive here to-day, en route for their homes.

A soldier in Nashville Friday kicked a citizen of Gallatin in the head with his boot heel, causing instant death. The citizen was drunk at the time and insulted the soldier.

R. C. Schlick has opened on Broadway, three doors above Shelby, where sutlers can obtain beer in any quantities. Sutlers will find this place handy, as it is near the camps.

MONEY ORDER OFFICES.—The following offices in Kentucky have been designated money order offices by the Postmaster General, and will go into operation to-day: Bowlinggreen, Maysville and Paducah.

Saturday S. P. Smith, an officer from Nashville, arrived in our city. He returned yesterday, taking with him Jno. Davis, a free negro, arrested in this city and charged with robbing some persons at Nashville.

There is very little doing by the military authorities in the city. The soldiers it seems are behaving very well. There is a great deal less whisky consumed and better order prevailing than there has been.

Since the war has been settled, matrimony has broken out to a fearful extent, and there seems to be quite a number of persons in western and southern Kentucky who are troubled with it very badly.

Dr. Hunter's letters will be found in to-day's issue, and, like all productions from the pen of this eminent physician, merits a careful perusal, and convinces all who read them that the doctor is a man of science and skill and perfectly at home in the specialty to which his practice is exclusively confined.

ENOUGH.—For some time past large numbers of Confederate soldiers have been passing through our city, en route for their homes. A large number of ladies and citizens did all in their power to supply them with provisions, &c., while in the city. We are glad to hear that the ladies and all concerned for their attentions to them, and to say that no more is needed, as nearly all of the soldiers have gone.

The children, parents, friends and members connected with the Walnut Street Baptist Sunday school and congregation are requested to meet on Tuesday morning, at 8 o'clock, the 4th inst., for the purpose of attending a Sunday school picnic. Tickets and full information can be obtained from A. S. Woodruff, Main street, between Third and Fourth, or at Willard's Hotel.

SALES OF WOODFORD COUNTY LAND.—The farm of V. L. Moore, on the Clifton turnpike, containing one hundred and seven acres, was sold recently at $130 $5 per acre.

A part of Dr. Terrell's (deceased) farm, sold under decree of court, brought $134 per acre.

Also one hundred and two acres of unimproved land, one mile from Versailles, on the Shrook's turnpike road, at $102.

FENIAN PICNIC.—Let no one fail to go to Woodland Garden to-morrow. The Fenian Brotherhood, being a patriotic organization, deserve to be sustained in their endeavor to free Fatherland. The committee of arrangements are gentlemen well known to the public, and have made every sacrifice to give satisfaction. Tickets admitting a lady and gentleman only one dollar. Let all lovers of liberty be on hand.

The Daily Commercial is the name of a new paper just started in Memphis, Tenn. Its appearance is highly creditable to both publishers and editors. We hope to see it regularly.

Badger.—A new badge is to be worn by the Army of the West. The badge will unite the emblems of the Fourth, Fifth, Tenth, and Twentieth corps. It is a triangular across a star, with ribbon and pin.

We are indebted to the clever messengers of the Adams Express Company for daily favors.

Dr. James Hunter on Sore Throat and Diphtheria.

To the Editor of the Democrat:—I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your issue of the 27th inst., containing an article on Sore Throat and Diphtheria, and in reply to inform you that the same has been forwarded to the proper authorities for their consideration.

The article is a valuable treatise on the subject, and I have no doubt that it will be of great service to the public. I have no objection to its being published in your paper, and I am sure it will be of great value to the community.

Hostetter's Bitters on the Battle-Field.

It is satisfactory to know that our field hospitals are no longer supplied with this life-saving preparation. Soldiers who, as private citizens, had become acquainted with its properties, have in many instances made a special request that HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS might be added to the medical stores of their regiments, and their wishes have not been unheeded. As a means of sustaining wounded men on the battle-field, and of enabling troops to bear fatigues unimpaired by a blinding sun, it has been strenuously recommended by distinguished medical men, and the prospect is that it will eventually supersede all the adulterated tonics, liquors, and quinine, which have heretofore been considered medicinal agents. The fact that a small quantity of the Bitters mixed with water from any of the Southern or Northwestern rivers will prevent it from affecting the bowels or liver, should be borne in mind by Army Physicians, and all who have occasion to visit those portions of our country. The man who uses Hostetter's Bitters in conformity with the directions, may set at defiance Intermittent Fever and all other diseases generated by the action of an unwholesome atmosphere upon an overtaxed frame.
